VALVES & REDUCERS

Customers are required to install a check valve and a pressure reducer. This prevents water from backing out of your hot water tank and prevents water from backing into the Water #1 system lines. Make sure your residence has both. Any problem with the water pressure may be due to a regulator that has gone bad or an expansion tank may be needed on the hot water tank.

Any problems experienced by the customer with plumbing beyond the point of the meter connection is not the responsibility of Water #1.

METER TAMPERING

Tampering with a meter in anyway will result in the meter being pulled from service. A fee of $50/$100 will be charged to the account holder. In addition to the fine, any water used will be charged before water service can be restored. Any Water #1 property damage will also be charged to the account.

Cutting off lock – $50
Setter damaged – $100
Bypassing meter (straight gut) - $100

IN ADDITION, VIOLATORS MAY BE PROSECUTED UNDER OHIO REVISED CODE 4933.18. THIS LAW CAN ADD A FINE UP TO $1,000 AND POSSIBLE IMPRISONMENT.

DOUBLE HOOKING A METER

Connecting more than one residence to one meter is illegal. Doing so will result in disconnection of service and possible prosecution charges. Each service must be separately metered. Water #1 may shut off water to a user who allows a connection to be made to their service line for the purpose of supplying water to another user.

METER ACCESS

The customer must provide a free and accessible area to read the water meter. If the meter reader cannot read the meter due to debris, vehicle parked on meter, etc., a service charge will be applied to the account. If a vehicle must be towed by Water #1 in order to read, lock or pull a meter the customer will be responsible for the towing charges.

CALL BEFORE YOU DIG IT'S A STATE LAW!

The Ohio Utility Protection Service offers a toll free phone number to contractors and private citizens to call 48 hours prior to digging. OUPS notifies all utility companies of the digging location so that no lines are hit or dug up. Disregard of this law causes utility outages in the area of the digging.
